

Europe's Biggest Basketball Stage Comes to Kadıköy on Giant Screens

The Excitement of the 2025 EuroLeague Final Four Will Be Experienced at Terminal Kadıköy

The 2025 Turkish Airlines EuroLeague Final Four games, to be played in Abu Dhabi between May 23–25, will be broadcast live on giant screens at Terminal Kadıköy, Istanbul's most dynamic meeting point, offering an open-air atmosphere and the energy of Türkiye's largest sports bar, 7DE7.

The fierce competition between European giants such as Fenerbahçe Beko, Panathinaikos, Olympiakos, and Monaco will transform into a grand fan experience featuring street food flavors, DJ performances, and live broadcasts. The heart of basketball will beat in Kadıköy.

Europe's biggest basketball stage is coming to Terminal Kadıköy on giant screens.

Opening its doors at Istanbul Söğütlüçeşme Train Station as the city's newest gastronomy, culture, and entertainment hub, Terminal Kadıköy will host the excitement of one of Europe's most prestigious basketball events—the 2025 Turkish Airlines EuroLeague Final Four.

The matches of the 2025 Turkish Airlines EuroLeague Final Four, taking place in Abu Dhabi, United Arab Emirates, between May 23–25, will be broadcast live on the giant screens located at 7DE7 within Terminal Kadıköy.

This special organization, where European powerhouses such as Fenerbahçe Beko, Olympiakos, AS Monaco, and Panathinaikos compete for the championship, will meet basketball fans at Terminal Kadıköy with its unique atmosphere, open-air comfort, and the vibrant setting of 7DE7, Türkiye's largest sports bar.

The EuroLeague Final Four semifinal match between Fenerbahçe and Panathinaikos will take place on Friday, May 23, at 18:00. The losing team will face the loser of the Olympiakos – AS Monaco matchup in the third-place game on Sunday, May 25. The final match, where the champion will be crowned, will also be played on the same day.

Bringing together 24 different street food concepts from various cuisines under its mercado-style layout, 7DE7 combines flavor with match-day excitement. Giant screens that turn the Final Four thrill into true grandstand energy will offer basketball fans in Istanbul an unforgettable experience.

Throughout the Final Four broadcasts, special DJ performances, live shows, and exclusive giveaways for basketball fans will also await visitors at Terminal Kadıköy.

As a point where sports, gastronomy, and social life intersect, Terminal Kadıköy will host the final excitement of European basketball next weekend, offering its visitors an experience that feels both like a match and a festival.
