

Loft Art's New Exhibition "NON-PLACE" Opens on October 2, 2025

Loft Art, established with the aim of creating a platform where independent artists can exhibit their works, is pleased to announce its new group exhibition titled "Non-Place." Featuring the participation of 11 independent artists—Ayşe Gürpınar, Berk Arıkan, Ecem Naz Dalmaz, Eylül Civelek, Handan Akarsu, Hilal Gök, Mehtap Yayla, Selver Yıldırım, Sevdıye Cerrahođlu, Őüheda Karaosmanođlu, and Yađmur Yılan—the exhibition will be open to visitors at Loft Art from October 2 to November 30, 2025.

"Non-Place" refers to a utopia, an imaginary space, or a realm constructed within one's mind that has no real-world counterpart—in other words, a utopia that exists precisely through its impossibility of realization.

Centered on this concept, the exhibition makes visible the fluidity of space and time, the unreliability of memory, and the fragility of belonging.

Distorted images, blurred surfaces, and the reflected shadows of incomplete forms reveal the constructive power of imagination.

Rather than offering a promise of refuge, this approach invites the viewer to confront uncertainty—to step into a place that does not exist.

About Loft Art

Loft Art was established to create an exhibition space for independent artists. Aiming to promote equal opportunity within the art market, Loft Art brings together audiences with independent artists producing works across diverse media. Guided by the corporate values embraced by Akfen Holding, Loft Art seeks to support independent artistic production and to increase artists' visibility within the art market.

Proceeds from artworks sold at Loft Art exhibitions also contribute to the activities of the Turkey Human Resources, Education and Health Foundation (TİKAV), founded by Akfen Holding, which implements national and international social responsibility projects with a focus on women and children. Dilara Akın, a member of TİKAV's Board of Trustees, oversees Loft Art, while the Art Director of Loft Art is Ayşe Jaber.
