

23 April National Sovereignty and Children's Day Celebrations Continue at QNB Terminal Kadıköy: Everyone of All Ages Celebrates the Holiday to Their Heart's Content with the 90s Game Neighborhood

At QNB Terminal Kadıköy, children fully experienced 23 April National Sovereignty and Children's Day, gifted to children by Mustafa Kemal Atatürk, the founder of the Republic of Türkiye.

The celebrations, which witnessed colorful moments, continue today and tomorrow with full enthusiasm. The events, running through Saturday, April 25, are held free of charge for children and parents.

QNB Terminal Kadıköy is celebrating 23 April National Sovereignty and Children's Day, gifted to children by Mustafa Kemal Atatürk, the founder of the Republic of Türkiye, with a comprehensive three-day program. Hosting 4,000 visitors on the first day of the events taking place as part of 23 April National Sovereignty and Children's Day, QNB Terminal Kadıköy saw colorful and unforgettable moments throughout the day in an area filled with the joy of children. While children celebrated the holiday to their heart's content, enjoyable moments emerged with the participation of families. This special celebration that began at QNB Terminal Kadıköy continues today and tomorrow with different activities.

Nostalgia and fun continue through Saturday, April 25, in events spread across every corner of QNB Terminal Kadıköy, designed both for children and for adults who want to remember their childhood.

90s GAMES COME TO LIFE AT PLATFORM

Platform, the event space of QNB Terminal Kadıköy, transforms during the holiday with the "23 April 90s Game Neighborhood" into not just an event venue, but a living experience space bridging past street culture with today's urban life. Laughter that once echoed in local neighborhoods will now be heard again in the same rhythm at Platform; while children play traditional games, parents will touch back upon their own childhoods.

Featuring home games such as leapfrog, hopscotch, "yağ satarım" and musical chairs, street games including marbles, jump rope, hula hoop, Tazos, and spinning tops, the "23 April 90s Game Neighborhood" will also bring classic fairground games like ring toss, sack race, and balloon popping together with children and their families. Acoustic concerts, DJ performances, and marching band shows will accompany the games in the neighborhood.

SPECIAL MENUS FOR 23 APRIL CHILDREN AT THE 7DE7 AREA

Throughout April 23-24-25, special menus prepared for children at QNB Terminal Kadıköy's gastronomy and experience area, 7DE7, will be one of the most enjoyable parts of the event. A wide range extending from mini lahmacun ("kuşgözü") to mini pizza, classic hot dogs to fish burger menus, crispy chicken to round meatballs was designed with practical and fun options suited to children's tastes. On the sweet side, waffles on a stick, chocolate-covered fruits, and colorful snacks will add a sweet touch to the neighborhood atmosphere. Appealing to children in both taste and presentation, these menus will turn the day-long event experience into seamless enjoyment for families, while strongly showcasing 7DE7's approach as an "experience area" going beyond food and beverage.
