

Filenin Sultanları Semi-Final Match Against China Will Be Watched at QNB Terminal Kadıköy

The critical match that the Turkish National Women's Volleyball Team will play against China in the semi-finals of the FIVB 2026 Volleyball Women's Nations League will be broadcast live on giant screens at QNB Terminal Kadıköy on Saturday, July 25, at 14.30. Volleyball fans will experience the excitement of the Sultans of the Net's struggle on the road to the final together, accompanied by the open-air atmosphere and street flavors of 7DE7.

Filenin Sultanları take the court against China to advance to the final in the FIVB 2026 Women's Volleyball Nations League. Defeating the USA 3-2 in a match that extended to five sets in the quarter-finals, China became the Turkish National Women's Volleyball Team's opponent in the semi-finals.

The semi-final match, which will be played on Saturday, July 25, at 14.30 Turkish time, can be watched live on giant screens in the 7DE7 area at QNB Terminal Kadıköy located in Istanbul Söğütlüçeşme.

One of Istanbul's dynamic meeting points, QNB Terminal Kadıköy invites sports fans to watch the critical struggle of the Sultans of the Net on the road to the final together. With its open-air atmosphere, food and beverage options bringing together different street flavors, and the shared viewing excitement reminiscent of stadium stands, the match will transform into a special experience for sports fans.

AT THE INTERSECTION POINT OF METROBUS, MARMARAY, AND HIGH-SPEED TRAIN LINES

Situated in Kadıköy Söğütlüçeşme at the intersection point of Metrobus, Marmaray, and High-Speed Train (YHT) lines, QNB Terminal Kadıköy provides easy access for sports fans coming from different points of Istanbul thanks to its central transportation opportunities.

Having previously brought sports fans together with anthems, cheers, and great excitement during major matches of national teams, QNB Terminal Kadıköy will also be the address of volleyball enthusiasm during the Sultans of the Net's semi-final match against China.